Welcome to Finland Works online recruitment event! February 16th 2022 at 12–16

Finland Works is a virtual recruitment event that brings you together with talents from Finland and abroad: Finland works | EURES - European Job Days

- Participation is free of charge. At this recruitment event talents from different professional fields look for new work opportunities in Finland.
- At the event you will gain positive international visibility and strengthen your brand. By registering to the virtual platform you are able to create a stand with your company information (e.g. videos) and open positions.
- Maximize your visibility by creating a virtual stand and by opening your vacancies as early as possible. The talents will be active on the platform weeks before the actual event.
- At the stand you can publish your vacancies and choose from those who have applied the most interesting candidates CVs. You will receive job applications via the platform and can interview potential talents between February 16th and 18th.
- Registration instructions in the following links: a new employer and previously participated employer.
